

SCAVENGER HUNT

Solve the riddles and find these fourteen places on the fairgrounds.

Take a photo with them too!

The photo that you are looking to find, has an orange kind of rind. It is not small, no far from there, this gourds the biggest at the fair!

They are delicate and pretty and they smell nice too! Visit this spot, take a picture or two. Be gentle and smile, the sun makes the grown higher.

Another place to get your kicks, is the birthing place for tiny chicks. In a bubble is where they lie, they need the heat or they could die!

Travel next, this place is fine, it's filled with tiny little swine. In mud they sometimes like to douse, they call this barn, their comfy house.

Workers now are in their home, creating sweets within their combs. I ask you now, not to be mean, please take a picture with their queen!

It might seem early, but that is o.k., he doesn't yet have to go ride in his sleigh. Made out of wood, he's jolly and quick, some people say that his name's St. Nick!

Into most of the barns, visitors are allowed, some animals are fluffy, they look like a cloud. Sheep are the coolest, so I'll tell you what, take a picture with one whose hair has been cut!

This spot to find is kind of nuts, you are looking for a yellow bus. Not a normal one for you to see, some even call it big and crazy.

A weird machine you now must find, looks like an animal to your mind, it teaches kids, it isn't scary, how farmers can remove the dairy.

This person's shop, they use a flame, creating metal goods is their aim. Hammers and anvils are all unreal, these tools are used to bend the steel.

The next is a delicious treat, but you will not find any meat. Potatoes are where they begin, I am sure they have these in Berlin!

Wilbur and Hamm they come to this place. Olivia and Porky also come here to race. Going around, and then they come back, these mini Peppas run on the track.

Animals are always a big part of the fair, so take a cool picture with the biggest you can. A donkey, a bull, or even a cow, what are you waiting for, go do it now!

Farms are humongous, the work is so hard, it's any area much bigger than your backyard. Many machines are used to get the job done, please take a picture with a really large one!
