

James P. O'Brien
GENERAL MANAGER

POLICY FOR POLITICAL CANDIDATES

This policy shall govern access to Essex Agricultural Society's ("EAS") property by individuals ("elected or candidates for political office") who wish to be present for political causes.

1. On Grounds Visits: Politicians may be present on the fairgrounds with the following regulations:
 - a. Politicians need to purchase admission to the fairgrounds;
 - b. There is three (3) person limit to the number of people accompanying the candidate;
 - c. One (1) sign (max 2'x2') is permitted on the fairgrounds;
 - c. Politicians and supporters must be unobtrusive, reasonable, and not interfere with EAS's use of its property;
 - d. Politicians may not approach fairgoers in any way unless they are spoken to;
 - e. Stage presentations are reserved for sitting officials ONLY.
 - f. Distribution of brochures, flyers are permitted, but can't be left behind.

2. On Grounds Parades: Politicians may be present on the fairgrounds with the following regulations:
 - a. Politicians need to purchase admission to the fairgrounds;
 - b. There is three (3) person limit to the number of people accompanying the candidate;
 - c. One (1) sign (max 2'x2') is permitted on the fairgrounds;
 - c. Politicians and supporters must be unobtrusive, reasonable, and not interfere with EAS's use of its property;
 - d. Politicians may not approach fairgoers in any way unless they are spoken to;
 - e. Stage presentations are reserved for sitting officials ONLY.
 - f. Distribution of brochures, flyers are permitted, but can't be left behind.

2. Termination of Appearance: Failure to comply with EAS' policy may result in leaving the EAS property.

Essex Agricultural Society

P.O. Box 134, Topsfield, Massachusetts 01983-0234 • 978/887-5000 • Fax 978/887-3016 www.topsfieldfair.org